

Report of the Two-Days National Conference- NCETC'21

REPORT

The Department of Electronics and Communication engineering organized the Two days “National Conference on Emerging trends in Communication”- NCETC'18 on 22th & 23rd March 2021 at SITAMS, CHITTOOR.

This conference aims to bring together innovative academicians, researchers and industry experts in the field of Communication, Signal Processing, VLSI Design, Computing and Networking fields to a common forum, for a constructive discussion on theoretical concepts and practical ideas to promote a digital nation. It also helps in identify the cutting-edge technological advancements revolutionizing the world.

Totally around 72 papers were received from various universities / colleges. The received paper has been reviewed through the scrutinizing committee & the reviewed details have been forwarded to the concern students. After all process carried out totally 50 papers have been selected for presentation.

Our chief guest & also from our management for our proceedings. The conference was inaugurated in the presence of our Chairman Shri. K. Ranganatham, Principal Dr.P. Ramesh kumar, Department/ECE & Organizing Chair Dr. M. Saravanan Organizing Chair welcomed the gathering Organizing Secretary, addressed the overview of NCETC'21. Dr. K. Gopi and it is distributed among the dignitaries and the audience.

Success fully conducted with all of our internal and external faculty members, and certificates are distributed to all the participated participants. Thanking you to all

SESSION CHAIR:

Dr. K. Gopi

Dr. P. Sudheer

Dr. K. Prabhu chandran

Technical Rangoli

