I MBA I Semester

18CSE113 - Information Technology for Management Professionals Lab

The department of Management Studies is conducting Information Technology for Management Professionals Lab to I MBA Students as a part of academic curriculum. It is designed with a combination of MS-Word, Ms-Excel, MS-PowerPoint, SQL and Oracle. It consists of 12 experiments that enhance the student technical skills. These skills enable the student in exhibiting in Company analysis Report and Project report presentations.

The faculty of MBA deals the class and conducts practical session in Business Research Lab. The lab is conducted weekly once with three hours of duration. Each student is given a computer system and executes the experiment in MS-Office. The students are assisted with a Technical Lab Assistant.