ORGANIZED BY DEPARTMENT OF COMPUTER SCIENCE AND ENGINEERING

ACADEMIC YEAR: 2025-26

The Department of Computer Science and Engineering organized a Guest Lecture on “Cyber Security” from 09th October 2025 to 11th October 2025 at the Seminar Hall. The session was conducted by Mr. Rukesh N. K., Data Protection & Cyber Security Specialist, who shared valuable insights into the current trends, challenges and practical aspects of Cyber Security in the real world.

The event was coordinated by Dr. Karunia Krishnapriya R., Head of the Department (CSE), along with Class Representatives serving as student coordinators. The primary objective of this guest lecture was to create awareness among students about real-time cyber security concepts, tools and defines mechanisms.

Throughout the three-day session, the resource person conducted both theoretical and practical sessions, demonstrating how various cyber security techniques are applied in real-time environments. Students actively participated in hands-on demonstrations enhancing their understanding of concepts such as data protection, network security and ethical hacking.

The session was designed to enhance students’ understanding of emerging threats in cyberspace and methods to safeguard digital assets. The guest emphasized the importance of cyber security awareness in both professional and personal digital environments. The lecture aimed to bridge theoretical knowledge with practical cyber security applications. The event provided a platform for students to interact with an industry expert and gain insights into career opportunities in cyber security.

The program helped Students Bridge the gap between academic learning and real-world applications, providing a deeper understanding of cyber security tools and practices. A total of 100 students from the department participated and benefited from this session.

The Department and Student expresses its gratitude to the guest speaker for his valuable contribution and to all faculty and student coordinators for their efforts in making the event a success.
