

Common Errors in English.

21/5/24.

1. His two sons are at school, but none of them is passed this year.
A. His two sons are at school, but neither of them is passed this year.
2. I have a work to do.
A. I have work to do.
3. Two friends must help one another.
A. Two friends must help each other.
4. She is youngest of two sisters.
A. She is younger of two sisters.
5. I prevented him to enter the office.
A. I prevented him from enter the office.
6. I don't think he can (be able to) solve the problems.
A. I don't think he can solve the problem.
7. Let us discuss about the topic.
A. Let us discuss the topic.
8. He came to meeting by foot.
A. He came to meeting on foot.
9. I shall not come unless I'm not invited.
A. I shall not come unless I'm invited.
10. One should always remain loyal to his country.
A. One should always remain loyal to one's country.
11. This morning I got up lately.
A. This morning I got up late.
12. His problems are same as me.
A. His problems are same as mine.
13. Tea is preferable than coffee.
A. Tea is preferable to coffee.
14. Rani & Vani are causing sisters.
A. Rani & Vani are cousins.
15. She bought four dozens of oranges.
A. She bought four dozen oranges.
16. I had recieved your letter.
A. I have recieved your letter.
17. None of my friends are intelligent.
A. Neither of my friends are intelligent.
18. I love dancing as well as listen to the music.
A. I love dancing as well as listening to the music.
19. Why you are so late.
A. Why are you so late?
20. We usually go to college by walk foot.
A. We usually go to college on foot.